Dear Bella,

Yours of Oct
6th is received, and I am very glad to hear that dear Maggie
is going on so well,
it must be a
great comfort to both boys to have each other & I dont doubt Maggie will be improved by the companionship of Leonce.
You will get a package from Boston
in a few days
containing the books

and Bayyies thick coat. Has he, thick clothes enough for the present. I shall have a new suit made
as soon as I can,
the woman who does them is very busy just now, and I shall be obliged to wait a little while.

We had a small
dinner party yesterday, some people from Matangas. I am sorry to say that Virginia does not prove to be to me the comfort
that you supposed she would. I love

been, and am steadfastly tried with her, and besides her being the dirtiest creature I ever had in the house, she has
many other faults,
and is exceedingly
disagreeable.
Did I send Waggie's
thick wollen stockings?
I cannot tell whether I put them into the trunk or not,
and I cant find
them anywhere.
I hope soon to get a letter from Waggie.

Yours very truly,

S. M. W.
